REVIEWS

MUSICAL OPINION, LONDON, 'CONCERTS REVIEW'

"Polly Ferman at St. Martins-in the-Fields, her performance of Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue, a really splendid account of this ageless piece, brought a deserved ovation from the gratifyingly large audience"

THE AMERICAN RECORD GUIDE

"Ferman's pianism is very aristocratic, and she makes the listener believe that Chabrier's habaneras is a real apotheosis of a dance form rating with Schubert, Chopin and Brahms". Her rhythms sway and insinuate and her touch is wonderful, perfectly suited to soft nuanced playing". "Polly Ferman's pianism is superb and of a kind

KONSOMOL MOSCOVITA, MOSCOW

"Polly Ferman enjoys playing pieces with technical virtuosism. From her fast fingers we can hear silver transparent sounds. Looking at her, we do not only realize her technique, her talent, but also about the art of seating down gracefully at the piano and keeping the posture of a queen."

NANJING XINHUA DAILY

"Polly Ferman performed an excellent version of MOMO PRECOCE, a Fantasy for Piano and orchestra by Brazilian Heitor Villa-Lobos. She conveyed with interpretative efficiency the richness of ideas, rhythms and colours that permeates the whole score"

THE PHILLIPINE STAR

"The remarkable P. Ferman displayed by turns considerable power and exquisite sensibilities, while exhibiting an astonishingly wide range of tonal hues. What deeply resonant tones her touch yielded! Argentine music came vibrantly alive as Mrs. Ferman eminently succeeded in capturing and conveying the substance, spirit and essence of Argentine music. One no longer wonders why famous composers admired their Argentine peer"

THE NEW YORK TIMES

"Ferman is an experienced professional with a good technique and she left us with no doubts as to her feelings"

THE JAPAN TIMES

"It has become Ferman's mission, in the concert hall and in recordings, to acquaint the public with the unfairly neglected music of the Americas. She is an artist with an endearing attitude toward the compositions which she interprets. One is given the strong impression that they are her own creations which she longs to expose to the light of the concert hall. Expose them she does, with a touching humility, fluidity of technique and richness of sound"

LA NACIÓN, BUENOS AIRES

"The well known pianist Polly Ferman played, in a captivating afternoon, works of Latin American composers"

THE INDIANAPOLIS STAR

"Soloist in this expansive fantasy for piano and orchestra was Polly Ferman, a native Uruguayan and a tireless promoter of better cultural understanding among the nations of the Western Hemisphere. In Wednesday's performance, she was impressive as a lyrical explorer of the piece's more reflective moods. Her commitment to the work's musical language - a tribute to the festive celebrations of Brazil, viewed at street level - was never in doubt"

THE WASHINGTON POST

"The repertoire mainstays, Mendelssohn's 'Variations serieuses, Op. 54'. and Chopin's 'Andante Spianato and Grande Polonaise, Op. 22', gave the pianist ample opportunity to display her technical brilliance" Liquid phrasing juxtaposed against a decidedly percussive left-hand attack brought both delicacy and urgency to the Mendelssohn. Minimal pedaling and flexible tempo rubato in Chopin made for a poetically unselfconscious performance. The registering its applause before she could sound the final chords"

PHILLIPINE DAILY INQUIRER

"Hailed as the 'Musical Ambassador of the Americas', she shows a compelling, natural ease in doing Argentinian music. Her touch is light but penetrating. The tones her dexterous fingers produce are relaxed and fresh. Listening to Mrs. Ferman is a pleasure. "
